

Edition Terroir by Claus Jacob Weissburgunder Vulkanfelsen

0,75 L

Baden is Germany's Burgundy paradise. The landscape, especially around the Kaiserstuhl, is characterized by its volcanic origins. The deep volcanic soils, in combination with the exceptionally warm and sunny climate, provide ideal growing conditions for Pinot Blanc. The aroma of Pinot Blanc from the Böttinger volcanic rock is characterized by yellow fruits, citrus and fine spice paired with mineral notes. A perfect accompaniment for light meals and fish dishes.

Country of origin / region

Germany, Baden

Grape variety(s)

Weißburgunder

Quality level

Quality Wine

Flavor

Dry

Flavors

Apple

Minerals

Pear

Spicy

Alcohol (vol/%)

Residual sugar (g/L)

Total acid (g/L)

This fits well

asian cuisine

shellfish

white meat

Award(s)

EAN

EAN Carton 4018905582626

Article number

88376